RISE UP AND PRAY

Dear Saint Joseph,

Pray for Holy child parish! It is our desire this year not only to know you better but to understand the power that God has invested in you as intercessor for us.

God is calling us to recognize in you, St. Joseph, the many virtues of manhood and fatherhood that you lived so deeply in your dedicated life as spouse of Mary and the earthly father of Jesus. Our world today needs you and your example more than ever because respect for family, the role of a father and the very meaning of "man and woman" are being demeaned and destroyed.

We turn to you in these times of special need and protection just as Mary and Jesus did because, now as then, the power of the Spirit lives in you.

During this year dedicated to you, St. Joseph, may we develop a deep devotion to you as we have already done with your spouse, Our Blessed Mother. May this devotion, and your protection and help, bring us closer to Jesus and be with us for the rest of our lives.

St. Joseph, help us to discover you as we enjoy the book, Consecration to St. Joseph!

We offer this prayer to you Father, in the name of Jesus and in the power of the Spirit.

Amen

The Consecration to St. Joseph books have arrived!!

If you reserved one, please let us know when you want to pick up your book and we will have it in the back of the church for you. You can put the money in an envelope and place in the collection boxes in the back of the church.

For those of you that are not attending church, let us know and we can mail your copy to you.

If you have not signed up for a book, you can call the office (281-2297)

The books are $7.50 each and will be available all year long for the various recommended days for the consecration.

February 7, 2021
5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

If I only knew then what I know now, how different life would be. This sentiment, expressed in myriad ways, is found on every human being's lips at one point or another. Life may have brought us to a vulnerable place where we see some of the poor choices we made and the effects they are having. Perhaps we fell into some destructive and dysfunctional relationships or behaviors and are finding how they held us captive. Our zeal and passion for life may have drifted away and we are waking up to the reasons apathy has taken hold. Life can be hard. In fact, some would describe their lives as a drudgery. They walk through each day with an anxious unsettledness, wondering when their restlessness will cease. There is a temptation to believe that what I see is all I will get. Mortality and hopelessness await the dawn. If I could only have known what would come in the future, I could have made better choices and avoided all of this misery!

Really? While we can certainly give into weakness, sin, impulsiveness, and idiosyncrasies that cause us to stumble over ourselves, life is really a journey. If we don't make the mistake of wallowing in the mire of self-pity and realize the new life God is calling us to, then there are thrills, adventures, surprises, and soul-searching graces we can surely miss. We are not tethered to our past nor are we bound to the ill life can bring upon us. We are never hopeless or helpless. The problem is that our myopic vision only allows us to see the misery and misfortune that is before us, not the potential that can come from choosing healthier and more life-giving options. Jesus came that we might have fullness of life. We need to learn how to reach for Jesus' hand and let him help us to our feet.

We need to allow God into our pain and heal our past. We have to wrestle with our histories, agonize and search and cry out for the Divine healing we need to restore our faith, hope, and love. Job could not see how his story would end or trust the guidance of the God who called him. We live in that same blindness and suffer from the same lack of confidence. Once we allow ourselves to be touched by God's healing power, we begin to see that all of the pieces of our lives are necessary parts of a greater whole. Along the way of our lives, God uses our omissions and failures to create new things and possibilities. When doors close, others open and we can be amazed by the joyful and unexpected surprises we receive. Once we know the power of God's creative, healing, life-giving, forgiving, and dynamic presence, it is no wonder we want to put ourselves at the service of others and show them what life can be.

GROWING WITH THE Gospel CYCLE B

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

5th Sunday in Ordinary Time • Mark 1:29-39

Sharing the Gospel

Think about how you get ready for a busy day. You eat a healthy breakfast. You wash up and brush your teeth. Then you get dressed and comb your hair. There's one more thing you could do to start your day off right. Pray. Find a quiet spot where you can be alone to talk to God. That's what Jesus did.

Prayer

God, help me to start every day with you in prayer.

Something to Draw

Draw a picture of yourself praying to God in a quiet place.

Mission for the Week

When you get home, choose a special quiet place where you can talk to God every morning. Tell your family about your special place. They may want to join you in spending quiet time to pray.

Collection to benefit Little Sisters of the Poor at Villa Guadalupe in Gallup, NM

Pro-Life Ministries of Holy Child Parish is sponsoring a drive to collect needed items for the residents of Villa Guadalupe. This is a home for the elderly poor in Gallup, NM. The home receives very little government funding and each year the Little Sisters of the Poor must raise over 70% of their operating expenses. They need your help!

This year the residents need paper towels, paper goods (dinner, dessert plates, napkins, spoons, forks, cups) Red paper plates are needed for the blind residents.

Every little bit helps!

There will be a large box in the parish hall to accept your donations from Feb 17 through April 11.
