Religious Education
News

We would like to thank Melissa Gutierrez for the past 38 years of teaching and running the Religious Ed program in Chilili. She will be stepping down and we wish her the best in all that lies ahead for her. Melissa will be truly missed and has been a huge blessing to our Parish. Any well wishes and Congratulations for Melissa may be left at the Chilili Mission or mailed to the parish at P.O. Box 130, Tijeras, NM 87059.

Religious Ed Registration for 2021-2022

It is time to register for next year's Religious Education. Please have forms in as soon as possible so we can start plans for next school year. You can mail forms and fees to the parish office or bring them in. If writing a check please put R.E. and child's name in the memo line. If you prefer to email the form you will need to email it to religioused@holychildnm.com.

R.E. Fees-this will cover the cost of curriculum and supplies for the year.

- $25- 1 student
- $35- 2 students
- $40- 3 students
- $45- 4 or more students

I look forward to another great year.
If you have any questions please let me know.
God Bless,
Alicia T. Rocco

Happy 23rd Anniversary on your Ordination to the Priesthood, Father Granito
May 30th, 2021
Holy Child Parish is Blessed to have you as our Pastor

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priest, Father Granito.
Through him, we experience your presence in the sacraments.
Help Father Granito to be strong in his vocation.
Set his soul on fire with love for your people.
Grant him the wisdom, understanding, and strength he needs to follow in the footsteps of Jesus.
Inspire him with the vision of your Kingdom.
Give him the words he needs to spread the Gospel.
Allow him to experience joy in his ministry.
Help him to be an instrument of your divine grace.
We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest.
Amen.

The Most Holy Trinity

Let God be who God is. This is often one of the hardest things to do. Rather than allowing the mystery of being created in the image and likeness of God unfold and take root in our lives, we change the dynamic. We want to be the creators who want to make God into the image and likeness we need God to be. We have a hard-enough time letting the people in our lives be who they are. We struggle even more so with God. It is almost as if we want God to be our imaginary friend who is not only with us whenever we need but becomes the Being we need God to be. Who is it that we want God to be today? A protector, disciplinarian, champion for justice, healer, advocate for our cause, grantor of prayers, guardian of my life, or the avenger? Our prayers tell an interesting story. When you pray, what does God look like?

Recently, a young woman who was feeling invisible, overlooked, ignored, and misunderstood by her husband struggled to make her feelings known and get his attention. Finally, she screamed, "Listen to me!" Thus, birth was given to a renewed and healthier relationship. We spend so much time storming heaven with our agenda and trying to make God into a "god" of our desires that we do not hear God saying, "Listen to me!" God is desperately trying to get our attention. God is saying, I am here among you as not one but three, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Many people seldom notice God's presence because they are so caught up with other spiritual cares and concerns. And, when the "god" they fashion and create doesn't produce as they desire, they shake the dust from their feet and move on. "I tried," they exclaim, "but God didn't listen."

Healthy relationships aren't built on making someone be who we need them to be. Healthy relationships are built on encounters of persons and the development of an appreciation of someone solely for who they are. Deeper relationships can even be found with two people marveling at each other and almost experiencing a childlike joy and giddiness when they see the other coming. Do you ever have these feelings about God? Believe it or not, God does for you! There is a joyful laughter that gives rise to and connects all three members of the Holy Trinity. It is this laughter, flowing from the very depths of the Godhead that not only keeps the Trinity in joyful unity but spills over into the creation of all beings and things. It is an expression of Divine Delight! Have you ever taken time away from your agenda to experience the Divine Joyfulness of God?

We can reach a connection of Presence wherein even the smallest of creatures suddenly radiate the fullness of God: the wonderful creation of their being, the innocence and playfulness of their movements, and the sustaining life breath that flows through their veins. The same God who created the heavens and the earth is the same God who wants you to call him 'Dad' and the same God who preserves your life and has all things in His care.

✚ MISSION

When we read the Gospel, Jesus teaches us about the Father. What have you learned so far about the Holy Spirit? Using the concordance found at the back of your Bible, look up "Holy Spirit." As a family, write down the verses, find them in your Bible, and read them out loud. Talk about each verse. If you have any questions, write them down and ask your pastor or teacher for help.

Sharing the Gospel

As the disciples ate with friends, traveled, worked, shopped, and made new friends, they were to have one goal in mind—help more people follow Jesus. Baptize them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Teach them to love God and love each other. Teach them to have mercy and forgive each other. Teach them to be humble. Teach them to pray. Teach them to share. And teach them to tell the people they met how to follow Jesus, too.

Prayer

Dear God, help me to teach my friends how to love and follow you—Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

Something to Draw

Draw a picture of yourself telling a friend about God.

Mission for the Week

When we read the Gospel, Jesus teaches us about the Father. What have you learned so far about the Holy Spirit? Using the concordance found at the back of your Bible, look up "Holy Spirit." COME HOLY SPIRIT

When Holy Child Parish opened a school in 2008, Fr. Granito envisioned that no parish family would be turned away because of their inability to pay. A particular family from the parish needs financial assistance for the upcoming school year. There is a need for a generous parishioner(s) who can help this family with tuition. This is an ongoing need for numerous families throughout the year. Please prayerfully consider helping us make the opportunity available for all families that are in need assistance.

The gift of a quality education is one of the greatest gifts you can give a child – a gift that will have a positive impact on the rest of the child’s life. Consider investing in a child’s future today by sponsoring a child’s education at Holy Child Catholic School. It is our mission to make the benefits of a Catholic education attainable for all families, regardless of income or ability to pay full tuition. By investing in a child’s education today, you are giving that child a brighter future tomorrow. Sponsor a student today and be a part of his/her future growth and development.

Our school would not survive without the prayer and support from our parish. If you feel called to give support, please call the school office at 281-3077, email bookkeeper@holychildnm.com or donate online at the parish website holychildparishnm.org through GivePlus by Vanco or MyEoffering.

May our Lord bless you abundantly.
